The astonishing thing about the movement which you represent is not that it has grown so slowly but that it has grown so rapidly. Two generations ago, no doubt, madam president will agree with me in saying. It was a handful of women who were fighting for this cause. Now it is a great multitude of women who are fighting for it. There was a time when nobody but a lawyer could know enough to run the government of the United States and a distinguished English publicist once remarked, speaking of the complexity of the American government, that it was no proof of the excellence of the Americans could run any constitution. But there have been a great many technical difficulties in running it.

Liberty For Women Coming.

"I get a little impatient sometimes about the discussion of the channels and methods by which it is to prevail. But it is to pre-vail. It is not merely because the women are discontented. It is because the women have seen visions of duty and that is something which we not only cannot resist, but if we be true Americans we do not wish to resist. Because America took its origin in visions of the human spirit, in aspirations for the deepest sort of liberty of the mind and of the heart, and as visions of that sort come up to the sight of those who are spiritually minded in America, America comes more and more into him.

America comes more and more into his birthright and into the perfection of her development. Cause Will Be Triumphant, "I have come to suggest among other things that when the forces of natura (Continued on Page 2 Column 2)
